Kathleen Moran is Senior Librarian with the JCSP Demonstration Library Project. Prior to joining JCSP, she worked for over 20 years at all levels of the public library service in Waterford City, including a 2-year period as Acting City Librarian. She spent 4 years as JCSP school librarian in St. Paul's Community College Waterford before progressing to her current position. Kathleen holds a Degree in Public Administration, Post-Graduate Diplomas in Library & Information Studies and Digital Media, and a Masters in Digital Media Development in Education. An avid reader, she founded and runs the DEAR Ireland National Reading Campaign. She was recently awarded (in conjunction with the JCSP Demonstration Library Project) the 2019 Children's Books Ireland Award for Outstanding Contribution to Children's Literature in Ireland and is the first Irish nominee for the IBBY-iRead Outstanding Reader Promotor Award.
